

~~SECRET~~
OTR VAULT COPY NO. 330

OFFICE OF TRAINING

DIRECTIVE

March 1954

COURSE: BIC(I)

SUBJECT: Intelligence and Policy HOURS: 1

25X1A9a

METHOD OF PRESENTATION: Lecture & discussion INSTRUCTOR: [REDACTED]

OBJECTIVES OF INSTRUCTION: To indicate the ways in which intelligence agencies support policy-planning and executive officers, in the field of national security; to illustrate the relationship between intelligence and policy by discussing the process of policy formulation in the National Security Council; and to analyze some of the principal problems encountered by intelligence officers in giving support to policy and executive units.

SUMMARY OF PRESENTATION:

SUBJECTS WITH WHICH COORDINATION IS REQUIRED: The National Security Council: Its Organization and Procedures; The Production of National Estimates.

REFERENCES: see Bibliography

REMARKS:

Document No. 1
No Change In Class. <input type="checkbox"/>
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Declassified
Class. Changed To: TS S C
Auth: HR 70-2
Date: 7-7-91